Student Contest Deadlines Near

Entries for the 2004 Voice of Democracy and Patriot's Pen competitions must be submitted by Nov. 1.

Voice of Democracy is a national audio essay contest in which students in grades 9 to 12 write and record a three-to five-minute essay on a patriotic theme. The contest provides more than $3 million in scholarships. This year's theme is "Celebrating our Veterans' Service."

Patriot's Pen is an essay-writing contest for students in grades 6, 7 and 8. First prize is a $10,000 savings bond and a trip to Washington, D.C. This year's theme is "What Service to our Country Means to Me."

Both contests are sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars. For more info call Bob Gambert at 0711-329-0585, e-mail bob.gambert@t-online.de or visit www.vfw.org.

Medical Emergency Information

Do not call or report to the Stuttgart Health

Clinic for emergencies. The clinic is not staffed or equipped to handle these situations. True emergencies, which may require ambulance service include heart attack, poisoning, severe bleeding, unconsciousness, breathing difficulty or severe injury to the head or torso.

If a true emergency exists, on or off post, call the military police at 116/civ. 0711-680-116 and provide the patient's name, age, sex, nature of emergency, and your telephone number and location, (including installation, street, building, apartment and room number). Stay on the line until instructed to hang up.

The German Red Cross (DRK) provides ambulance service to the Stuttgart military community; the Stuttgart Health Clinic has no ambulances. The DRK should be used only for genuine emergencies to prevent loss of life, limb or vision or to limit undue suffering.

SOFA Stamps Required

Family members of active-duty service members stationed in Germany are required to have a new blue Status of Forces Agreement certificate, or SOFA stamp no later than Jan. 15, 2005 in their no-fee passport.

The old white certificate will no longer be valid after Jan. 15, 2005. Air Force Personnel should visit Senior Airman Huff in Patch Barracks, bldg. 2308, room 138, or call 430-8459/8429/civ.0711-

680-8459/8429. All other military services, DoD civilians and contractors should call Ms. Short at 431-2301/civ.07031-15-858.

Absentee Voting Encouraged

Community members are encouraged to vote by absentee ballot in primary and general elections. The Department of Defense and the United States Postal Service are working together to ensure that U.S. military, civilians and their families serving abroad can vote in the 2004 elections, that these ballots are given the highest priority, and that these ballots count. The Federal Voting Assistance Program Overseas Voting Week started Oct. 11.

For info visit the Military Postal Service Agency web site at <http://hqdainet.army.mil/mpsa>, the Federal Voting Assistance Program web site at <http://www.fvap.gov/>, or the Department of Defense Ballot Initiative web site at <http://www.defense link.mil/releases/2004/ nr20040602 -0852.html>.

SECTION II ANNOUNCEMENTS

Help SNAP Keep Stuttgart Safe

Stuttgart's Safe Neighborhood Awareness Program relies on dedicated volunteers to serve as "extra eyes and ears" and help keep our installations safe. Speeding cars, broken lights or suspicious individuals can all pose threats to our well-being and can all be prevented by SNAP volunteers.

To learn more about the many benefits of joining one of our neighborhood watch teams, call Ernest Epps at 421-4615/civ. 0711-729-4615 or e-mail eppse@6asg.army.mil.

Book Signing At Patch Pxtra

Decorated World War II veteran Louis Rehr visits the Stuttgart community Oct. 22, 11 a.m. to 5 p.m., in the Patch PXtra.

Rehr will be on hand to meet community members and sign his book "Marauder - Memoir of a B-26 Pilot in Europe in World War II."

International Lighting Campaign

The International Motor Vehicle Lighting Equipment Campaign is in full swing. The purpose of the campaign is to encourage motor vehicle owners to have their vehicles inspected prior to the onset of winter weather.

German garages, AAFES car care centers and most U.S. Forces vehicle inspection stations will be conducting free inspections to check vehicle lighting systems to include headlights, taillights, fog lights and turn signals. In addition to the lighting inspection, AAFES car care centers will inspect windshield wipers, exhaust systems and tires. Those AAFES car care centers equipped with a brake analyzer will test brake systems as well.

Upon successful completion of the lighting system inspection, a safety sticker will be affixed to the windshield showing that the vehicle has successfully passed the inspection.

For more info call the AAFES Car Care Center at 431-2362/civ. 07031-213-766.

13-Month-old female purebred yellow Labrador Retriever: housebroken, spayed, all shots current. This dog is very energetic, smart and friendly. She loves children! Although our family hates to give her up, she needs more attention and more space to run than we can give her in our current stairwell-living environment on Patch. All bowls, leashes, brushes, food, treats, toys, her crate, and her L.L. Bean dog bed are included. E-mail all inquiries to: solivercostello@yahoo.com. Photos available upon request.
